

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
San Francisco Division

TECH PHARMACY SERVICES, LLC, Plaintiff,
v.
ALIXA RX LLC, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No.16-mc-80139-LB

ORDER

Re: ECF No. 1

Given the interplay of the motion to compel with the Texas case, the court thinks the matter is amenable to the meet-and-confer process that is the standard procedure in this district and is summarized in the attached standing order. The parties must at least meet to see if they can work out some of their disagreements via that process, which allows for a faster resolution than the ordinary five-weeks-to-a-hearing schedule under the local rules. If not, the schedule is as follows: 1) opposition due July 19, 2) reply due July 26, and 3) hearing set for August 11, 2016, at 9:30 a.m.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: July 14, 2016

LAUREL BEELER
United States Magistrate Judge